Choral speech is the speaking of a piece of literature by a speech choir. The focus is on the language and the text. The prime emphasis is on telling the story, rather than acting it out. Gestures and simple in-place movements may be used, but there is no movement around the stage. Variety may be created through the division of voices, use of solo voices, physical arrangement of the choir, use of props and the suggestion of a simple costume. 1. Choral speaking groups will be marked on clarity, articulation and quality of sound.

2. Props are not permitted.

3. All selections (two contrasting) must be memorized and age appropriate.

4. For sample works of choral speaking the following are guidelines:

"The Raven" - Edgar Allan Poe - from " The Best Poems Ever" Scholastic.
